Explanation

EFI's three largest programs are farm certification, training, and industry education. By the end of 2021 EFI was working closely with 10 of the largest national retail and food service produce buyers and 32 of their fresh produce suppliers to apply rigorous labor, food safety and pest management standards in the United States, Canada, Guatemala, Peru and Mexico. As of 12/31/21, EFI has trained over 3,500 workers and managers, and formed "Leadership Teams" that verify compliance with our standards on farms and packing houses. EFI has 78 farms in the certification process, which together employ over 58,000 workers, and works with them to move "Responsibly Grown. Farmworker Assured" EFI-labeled produce into the marketplace. EFI also maintains press and social media campaigns to educate retailers, growers workers and consumers about what the label means regarding compliance with EFI standards, as well as on other issues of importance to the produce industry, including human trafficking, responsible recruitment, and implementation of the Ethical Charter on Responsible Labor Practices.
